

Praise To the Lord, the Almighty 3/4

Public Domain. Words: Joachim Neander, 1680. Music: Erneuernten Gesangbuch, 1665

E G#m B
Praise to the Lord, the Almighty,
C#m B E E
The King of cre—a—tion
E G#m B
O my soul, praise Him, for He is
C#m B E E
Thy health and sal—va—tion!
E C#m
All ye who hear,
G#m G#m B B
Now to His temple draw near;
A C#m B E
Join me in glad ador—a—tion

E G#m B
Praise to the Lord, who over all things
C#m B E E
So wondrously reign—eth,
E G#m B
Shelters thee under His wings,
C#m B E E
Yea, so gently sus—tain—eth!
E C#m
Hast thou not seen
G#m G#m B B
How all thy longings hath been
A C#m B E
Granted in what He ordain—eth?

E G#m B
Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper
C#m B E E
Thy work and defend thee;
E G#m B
Surely His goodness and mercy
C#m B E E
Here daily at—tend thee.
E C#m
Ponder anew
G#m G#m B B
What the Almighty can do,
A C#m B E
If with His love He befriend thee.

E G#m B
Praise to the Lord, O let all
C#m B E E
That is in me adore Him!
E G#m B
All that hath life and breath, come now
C#m B E E
With praises before Him.
E C#m
Let the Amen
G#m G#m B B
Sound from His people a—gain,
A C#m B E
Gladly for aye we adore Him.

E G#m B
Praise to the Lord, the Almighty,
C#m B E
The King of cre—a—tion
