

So Send I You

Words by Margaret Clarkson, 1954 & 1963. Music by John W. Peterson. © 1954, 1963, 1982 New Spring. CCLI #5880942

INTRO: E A

E B
So send I you—to labor unrewarded,
B E
To serve unpaid, unloved, unsought, unknown,
E A
To bear rebuke, to suffer scorn and scoffing—
E B C#m B
So send I you— to toil for Me alone.
A

E B
So send I you—by grace made strong to triumph
B E
O'er hosts of hell, o'er darkness, death and sin,
E A
My Name to bear and in that Name to conquer
E B C#m B
So send I you—My victory to win.
A

E B
So send I you— to leave your life's ambition,
B E
To die to dear desire, self-will resign,
E A
To labor long, and love where men revile you—
E B C#m B
So send I you— to lose your life in Mine.
A

E B
So send I you—to bear My cross with patience,
B E
And then one day with joy to lay it down,
E A
To hear My voice, "Well done, My faithful servant
E B C#m B
Come share My throne, My kingdom & My crown!"
A

E B
So send I you —to bind the bruised and broken,
B E
O'er wand'ring souls to work, to weep, to wake,
E A
To bear the burdens of a world weary—
E B C#m B
So send I you— to suffer for My sake.
A

E B E
Come share My throne, My kingdom & My crown!"

E B
So send I you—My strength to know in weakness,
B E
My joy in grief, My perfect peace in pain,
E A
To prove my pow'r, My grace, My promised presence
E B C#m B
So send I you—eternal fruit to gain.
A