©2001 Same Old Dress Music (ASCAP). Words: William Gadsby.

E A E
The love of Christ is rich and free;
A E B E
Fixed on His own eternally;
E B E
Nor earth, nor hell, can it remove;
A E B E
Long as He lives, His own He'll love.

E A E
His loving heart engaged to be
A E B E
Our everlasting Surety;
E B E
'Twas love that took our cause in hand,
A E B E
And love maintains it to the end.

CHORUS:

A B E
Love cannot from its post withdraw;
A B E
Nor death, nor hell, nor sin, nor law,
A B C#m
Can turn our Surety's heart away;
C B E B
He'll love His own to endless day.

E A E
Love has redeemed His sheep with blood;
A E B E
And love will bring us safe to God;
E B E
Love calls us all from death to life;
A E B E
And love will finish all our strife.

(Repeat CHORUS)

E A E
He loves through every changing scene,
A E B E
Nor aught from Him can Zion wean;
E B E
Not all the wanderings of her heart
A E B E
Can make His love for her depart.

(Repeat CHORUS)

E A E
At death, beyond the grave, He'll love;
A E B E
In endless bliss, His own shall prove
E B E
The blazing glory of that love
A E B E
Which never could from them remove.

E A E
The love of Christ is rich and free;
A E B E
Fixed on His own eternally;
E B E
Nor earth, nor hell, can it remove;
A E B E
Long as He lives, His own He'll love.
A E B C#m
Long as He lives, His own He'll love.
A E B E
Long as He lives, His own He'll love.
