C#m A E
You have shown us, O God, what is good
C#m A E B
You have shown us, O Lord, what You require
C#m A
You have heard all our songs
E B/D#
How we long to worship You
C#m A E B
Yet You've told us the off'ring You desire

CHORUS:

A B C#m G#m
To do— justly, to love— mercy
A B E
To walk— humbly with You G
A B C#m G#m
You said to to do— justly, to love— mercy
A B E
To walk— humbly with You God

B

C#m A E
You have shown us the riches of Your love
C#m A E B
You have shown us Your heart for those in need
C#m A
Lord You're opening our ears
E B/D#
To the cries of the poor
C#m A E B
You have called us to be Your hands and feet

(Repeat CHORUS)

BRIDGE:

B
To the oppressed and the broken
C#m
To the widow and the orphan
A B C#m
Let the river of Your justice flow through us
B
To the oppressed and the broken
C#m
To the widow and the orphan
A B E
Let the river of Your justice flow through us

(Repeat CHORUS x2)
